

Whidden-Gammage.

Gordon Gammage and Miss Whidden were married at the home of the bride's parents in Arcadia on Tuesday night, at 8 p. m., by H. Keigwin officiating. It was a quiet wedding only the relatives and a few friends being present. The happy pair will go to house-keeping at once in the cottage that has been prepared for them on Madison avenue.

Miss Gammage is a charming young lady who has lived at Arcadia most of her life, is accomplished and a general favorite. She is a young man of excellent qualities who has been married for a number of years, and is respected and liked by all who know him. Her best wishes for a happy and prosperous life go with them.

A Sawmill Deal.

E. Fullford, this week bought the sawmill and lumber business of Jenkins & Branning, Arcadia. Mr. Fullford is an experienced sawmill man and will make a success of the venture. The mill is located about 2 1/2 miles east of Arcadia and is connected with their planing mill in the east side of town by a tram. Mr. Branning still retains his sawmill and will devote his time to this business.

The Count's Baseless Fear.

"Haf come," said the count, "to speak about my daughter." "No, pardon, not zat. I haf seen ze list where he say you haf only a thousand what you call heem doing."

"Oh-ho, ho! That's all right, count. Don't worry about that. My office boy, whom I had transferred $5,000,000 worth of gold bonds, which he held, the assessment was being fixed, and just handed them back. They're safe in the safe now. Do you want to them?"

"Merel, monsieur! You haf lift what I call heem a weight from my mind."

According to Her Taste.

"Have you been touching the barometer, Jane?" "Yes, mum; I've just put it to 'very good' 'cos it's my day out tomorrow."

Modern Titles.

"Say, is the big noise in?" inquired the visitor as he entered the office. "Naw. He's out feedin'." "Well, where is the chief gazabo—the one who has charge when the big noise is on?" "He's outa town." "Ain't there some one here who acts the main squeeze when they're away?" "Nobody but me." "And who are you?" "I'm de small bunch—de guy what keeps out de office. See?"—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Bill for Divorce.

Sixth Judicial Circuit of Florida, Circuit Court of DeSoto County. In Chancery. Nola V. Brown vs. William H. Brown. Bill for Divorce. It appearing from the affidavit of the attorney of the complainant filed in the above stated cause that the defendant's residence is unknown save and excepting that he is a resident of the United States of America, that he is over the age of twenty-one (21) years, and that there is no person in the State of Florida, the service of a Subpoena upon whom would be binding upon the defendant. It is therefore ordered that the said defendant, William H. Brown, be required to appear to the bill of complaint filed herein at the court house in Arcadia, Florida, on the 7th day of May, A. D., 1906. Witness my hand and seal this 21st day of March, 1906. [Seal] H. E. CARLTON, Clerk Circuit Court. L. A. HENDRY, Sol. for Complainant. A true copy of the original now on file in the clerk's office. [Seal] H. E. CARLTON, Clerk Ct. Cl. March 26, 1906.

Notice.

Sixth Judicial Circuit of Florida, Circuit Court of DeSoto County. D. F. Jack, Complainant, vs. J. McKay Alford, et al., Defendants. It appearing from the affidavit of the agent and attorney of the complainant filed in the above stated cause that the defendants C. H. Wilcox and the Savannah Florida Phosphate and Land Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Georgia are and each of them is a resident of a State other than the State of Florida, and the place of residence of the said defendants and each of them as particularly as the same is known to the affiant is Savannah, Chatham County, in the State of Georgia, and that in the belief of affiant, the defendant, C. H. Wilcox is over the age of twenty-one years, it is therefore ordered that the said defendants, C. H. Wilcox and the Savannah Florida Phosphate and Land Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Georgia, and each of them be required to appear to the bill of complaint filed herein at the court house in Arcadia, Florida, on Monday, the 2nd day of April, A. D., 1906, and it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published with as little delay as possible, once each week for four consecutive weeks in DeSoto county Champion, a newspaper published in DeSoto county, Florida, and that within twenty days of the making of this order a copy thereof be posted at the door of the court house of DeSoto county, Florida, at Arcadia, and a copy thereof be sent by mail to each of the said defendants, C. H. Wilcox and the Savannah Florida Phosphate and Land Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Georgia, at Savannah, Chatham County, in the State of Georgia. Witness my hand and the seal of the circuit court of DeSoto county, Florida, at Arcadia, on this 28th day of February, A. D., 1906. [SEAL] H. E. CARLTON, Clerk of the Ct. Cl. of DeSoto Co., Fla. A true copy of the original now on file in this office. [SEAL] H. E. CARLTON, Clerk. Feb. 28th, 1906.
